

FINAL RESULTS EDITION

PRICE ONE CENT.

M'CLELLAN, IN DECLARING OPEN WAR, ASSERTS THAT HE WILL NOT TOLERATE LEADER C. F. MURPHY

ARRESTED IN ST. PAUL FOR	The Mayor Throws Voorhis Out of Election Board, Names John T. Dooling and Issues a Manifesto Against Tammany Leader.
-----------------------------	---

ARRESTED IN ST. PAUL FOR	Election Board, Names John T. Dooling and Issues a Manifesto Against Tammany Leader.
-----------------------------	--

<h1>MURDER HERE.</h1> Leo Mitchell, alias Michael Lio, arrested to-day in St. Paul, Minn., after a three-years' search, confessed to the murder of Marie Lewrazzo at No. 46 Oak street in this city, on Nov. 27, 1902. The arrest was made on a coroner's warrant. The man had brought the young woman from Palermo when	<h1>FIGHT FOR SUPREMACY MAY BE TAKEN TO COURT</h1> Declares that He Wants the Support of the Democratic Organization, but Only Under Conditions Which Favor Clean and Efficient Government.
--	--

she was a mere girl or sixteen, the alleged son of a wealthy Jew, but, knowing he had a wife in Italy, she refused. Mitchell went to the Oak street house, called the girl into the hallway and fired two shots into her. Two little children witnessed the murder.

LATE NEW ORLEANS RESULTS.

Mayor McClellan did the expected to-day when he refused to re-appoint John R. Voorhis Commissioner of Elections. He appointed John T. Doney, Chairman of the General Committee of the Twentieth Assembly District, where Maurice Featherston is leader.

According to law he had to appoint a Democrat to fill the vacancy. The law provides that the Executive Committee of each county ma-

Fourth—Lucky Charm 5-1, St. Valentine out pl., J. Reddick.
Fifth—Judge Davey 10-1, Ruby Vertress out pl., Brittanby.

DRANK A PINT OF PARIS GREEN.

John C. Heim seemed in good spirits when he came home.

name the man to fill any vacancy in its allotment, and Murphy's committee named Voorhis to succeed himself.

With the announcement of U. S. appointment Mayor McClellan gave out statement in which he said:

In appointing Mr. Dooling as the representative of the Democratic organization of New York County on the Board of Elections, I take the opportunity to express my confidence in the conservatism of

WELL-MATCHED FIELDS IN RACES

to this morning, lunching today at his apartment in No. 1089 Avenue C. He ate heartily and then went to his bedroom and swallowed a pill of Paris green. He will die.

—♦♦♦—

FIVE JUVENILE "DRUNKS"

—♦—

STIR JUDGE'S WRATH

juvenile hangovers came to the attention of Justice Olmsted in the Children's Court this afternoon. He said he was

The first intoxicated boy was Martin Lyons, twelve years old, No. 149 West One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, who was found by Policeman surprised at the number and censured people who permit their children to have about at all hours and to come under evil influences.

There were six cases before the Children Court, five of which were for injury to property.

John F. Byrne in West One Hundred and Forty-eight street, intoxicated.
The law was remanded to the custody
of his mother, pending a further decision in his case.

Emile Malmon, fifteen years old, of
No. 334 East One Hundred and Sixty-four street, charged with larceny of clothing, was remanded to the custody
of his mother, pending a further decision in his case.

NEW ORLEANS RESULTS.

I have no candidate for the leadership of Tammany Hall, nor have I the least desire to involve myself with the aspirations of any one who is seeking such leadership.
There are those

FIRST RACE—Docklaw (5 to 1 and 2 to 1). 1. No Quarter (8 to 5 for place) 2. Buren Arnold 3.

The other case was that of Thomas O'Neil, thirteen years old, of
 No. 63 West Thirty-fifth street, who was charged with throwing a banana stalk through a plate-glass window at
 No. 404 Tenth avenue. In this case sentence was suspended.

Thomas O'Neil, aged twelve, of No.
 63 West Forty-seventh street, was found a few minutes before midnight lying on a sidewalk at Forty-seventh street and Seventh, unconscious from the effects of drink. He had to be overhauled.

SECOND RACE—Matador (10 to 1 and 4 to 1; Lady Vazhti (2 to 5 for place) 2, Ralbert 3.

I have had more a candidate
 sought to control the organization.
 I should like to have the support of the Democratic organization, because I have always been a Democrat.

Justice Olmsted in this case said: "I would not allow a child of mine to be out at any such hour as this boy, who was away from home between midnight and dawn, was out doing his business; having been arrested on W. at One Hundred and Fifty-fourth street, was allowed to go."

Allen Momen, fifteen, of No. 621 E. 10th street, and Thelma, six, of E. 10th street, were charged with the same.

THIRD RACE—Beau Brummell (2 to 1) and Max Baer (2 to 1) to 3 to 5, 1, Lady Elthorn (3 to 1) for place; 2, Daring 3.

FAIR GARDENS, NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 15.—

Jan. 2.—The field marshal and the entries a shaker into casual and the average in class. The card was featureless except for the starting of quilts a number of new horses from

EXCHANGE RESENTS ATTACK

In response to the application made by Congressman Livingston, of Georgia, a few days ago that a fraud order should issue from the office of the Postmaster in the New York papers yesterday from Washington was taken to the New York Cotton Exchange with copies of any complaint made against it in order that proper action may be taken.

General against the New York Cotton Exchange, Walter C. Hubbard, President of the Exchange, to-day made public a letter supplementary to his telegram of Dec. 31 to Postmaster-General, in which he had called the "arrantable attack" to this would add that it is deplorable that such a assault upon the New York Cotton Exchange—a chartered institution of over thirty-five years' standing, founded by merchants of the city—or such implication of the Exchange, should have occurred any previous year. The attendance was only fair, but the bidding was lively for the thirty-five books in the

NAME	PRICE
First Race—Five and one-half furlongs
Name, weight and class	Str 17
Declan, J. J. Hendon	10
Doyle	2 1/2

For Corlejo. 'As a basis for the application for the fraud order, it was charged by Mr. Livingston on behalf of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, that col-	tion as to the integrity of its members would be made under any pretext or for any purpose whatever. "Our members are of the best known merchants here, of the trade in the South, and abroad. They are proud of the past and of the present of their	<table border="0"> <tr><td>Buren Arnold, 96, A. Martin.....</td><td>5</td></tr> <tr><td>Quince, B. R. Lowe</td><td>5</td></tr> <tr><td>Shannon, J. Mahan, 102 N. Walker ..</td><td>10</td></tr> <tr><td>Taint, 92, Pohnaka</td><td>7</td></tr> <tr><td>Hoff, Brock, Vandenberg</td><td>7</td></tr> <tr><td>Karl, Leicester, 101, Dausett.....</td><td>8</td></tr> <tr><td>NH Vagrant, 101, Aubuchon</td><td>15</td></tr> </table>	Buren Arnold, 96, A. Martin.....	5	Quince, B. R. Lowe	5	Shannon, J. Mahan, 102 N. Walker ..	10	Taint, 92, Pohnaka	7	Hoff, Brock, Vandenberg	7	Karl, Leicester, 101, Dausett.....	8	NH Vagrant, 101, Aubuchon	15	vire to assume the chairmanship of many Hall. He says he wants the support of the organization, but will have it at the sacrifice of a clean efficient administration. The Mayor also announced the
Buren Arnold, 96, A. Martin.....	5
Quince, B. R. Lowe	5
Shannon, J. Mahan, 102 N. Walker ..	10
Taint, 92, Pohnaka	7
Hoff, Brock, Vandenberg	7
Karl, Leicester, 101, Dausett.....	8
NH Vagrant, 101, Aubuchon	15

on delivered on contracts and sold on the floor of the New York Cotton Exchange is not of the grades called for by the contracts. W. H. Hubbard said: "I confirm my telegram of this morning reading: 'A terrific to the telegram'."	Examination of the above report business men. They have no desire to allow men and they ask the nature of the charges, which are ignorantly made. They will protect themselves and they indignantly protest against the calumny which is calculated for their injury."	<table border="0"> <tr> <td>Spokane, 101, Beckman</td> <td>15</td> <td>53</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Helen Lucas, 20, Truman</td> <td>15</td> <td>53</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Brooklyn, 101, Moore</td> <td>15</td> <td>53</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Seattle, 105, Seder</td> <td>20</td> <td>53</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Brooklyn, 100, Floyd</td> <td>3</td> <td>52</td> </tr> <tr> <td>My Basile, 101, Hogg</td> <td>20</td> <td>53</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Thurs. 1:07 43.</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </table>	Spokane, 101, Beckman	15	53	Helen Lucas, 20, Truman	15	53	Brooklyn, 101, Moore	15	53	Seattle, 105, Seder	20	53	Brooklyn, 100, Floyd	3	52	My Basile, 101, Hogg	20	53	Thurs. 1:07 43.			pointment of Charles B. Page, Republican, reapportioned upon the nomination of the Republican Committee of New York County; John Maguire, of Brooklyn, upon the recommendation of
Spokane, 101, Beckman	15	53
Helen Lucas, 20, Truman	15	53
Brooklyn, 101, Moore	15	53
Seattle, 105, Seder	20	53
Brooklyn, 100, Floyd	3	52
My Basile, 101, Hogg	20	53
Thurs. 1:07 43.

CASSERTS ARE REARRESTED

Charles A. Gassert and his wife, Agnes, who abandoned their dead baby in a perambulator at Ninety-ninth street and Third avenue on Dec. 1, because they were too poor to give it burial.	Alks of proceeding him for bigamy. Gassert and his wife told Coroner Harburger to-day that they lived at No. 263 Second avenue when the baby died. They said they had no money and could not get a cent in the world and could not bear the thought of their baby in a pauper's field. They said:	Yahiel, 100, A. Gassert..... 5-24 Yahiel, 112, B. Austin..... 5-24 Yahiel, 112, Lloyd..... 2-8 Yahiel, 105, Beckman..... 4-7-5 Yahiel, 101, J. Kennedy..... 12-5	Committee Dooling Sworn In. Soon after the appointments had been announced Commissioner Dooling was sworn into office and then went to the house at Thirtieth and West Forty-
--	--	---	--

[illegible]

charge of violating the sanitary code by leaving a dead body on the street.

It appears that while Gassert and the woman lived together for eight years they are not married. Gassert is said to be not more than 40 years of age.

Yours truly,
The newly appointed Commissioner of the Department of Health and organized in getting Commissioner Dooling President, and Commissioner Page Secretary. Mr. Page was the Secretary up this woman, reading of his case in the newspapers, has come to New York from her home in Newark and as O'Brien and Thompson took Cassert and the woman to Harlem Police Court. Brummel came away and won easily by three lengths from Lady Ellison, who beat Daring a length for the place. Commissioner Maguire attended the meeting, but Commissioner Pulled was absent.